

Times-Call #	Title of File Folder	Photo#	Brief Description
A.60	Animals - 1992-1994	19	Photos only - no clippings.
A.60	Animals - 1990-1991	23	Photos only - no clippings.
A.60	Animals - 1989	26	Nederland man, Marvin Dewey, kills female mountain lion that killed livestock on his property. City of Boulder Open Space uses goats for weed control in pilot program. Longmont Mayor Wilson aids with domestic pet cat rescue.
A.60	Animals - 1988	27	Longmont animal artist, L.M. Budge, captures spirit of the animals. Niwot cancer patient, Alan Beede, plays with dolphins in Florida as part of his therapy. Longmont city council debates laws pertaining to pit bulls. Front range rescue dogs article. Six dogs poisoned near Lyons.
A.60	Animals - 1987	23	Cow belching adds to global warming says Colorado State University professor, Donald Johnson. Bats do not deserve bad reputation. Sue McNeece reports her boa constrictor, Stanley, missing. Stanley returns six months later. Citizens and city council discuss cat ordinance. Barr Lake offers free programs.
A.60	Animals - 1986	50	World's first horse born using new techniques at Colorado State University. Conceived through a new equine fertilization technique, a chestnut colt named 'Gift', was born. Several cases of Western equine encephalitis have been reported according to Tom Douville, a spokesman for Boulder County Health Department. Mosquito patrol hits the streets. Corey Herrington, 18 year old pit bull owner, was ordered to put down his pit bull. "Vetodomics" is the only on-going veterinary dentistry course of its kind being offered to train veterinarians as animal dentists offered at Colorado State Veterinary Teaching Hospital. Puppy power cheers nursing home residents in Longmont, a volunteer program guided by the Longmont Humane Society. Birders count area beaks. Llamas help with mountain hikes. Bubonic plague outbreak hits county. Weather determines grasshopper population.
A.60	Animals - 1985	29	Longmont police seize female leopard. Longmont Vet loves dogs. Rabbits: the pet of the 80's.
A.60	Animals - 1984	37	Longmont man, Dr. Robert Hawkins is charged with animal cruelty.
A.60	Animals - 1983	56	Eight jungle cats in Longmont transported to zoo. Longmont gets two four-legged cops. Dog teams compete.
A.60	Animals - 1982	36	Barking dogs challenges are addressed in Longmont. Dog helps hearing impaired local woman. High Country Bassett Hound Rescue looking for homes for dogs.

Times-Call #	Title of File Folder	Photo#	Brief Description
A.60	Animals - 1981	34	Boulder County approves poisoning several prairie dog colonies. Prairie dogs are invading Longmont suburbs. Moth explosion hits city. Grasshoppers are in abundance in Longmont.
A.60	Animals - 1980 - 1979	56	Cattle mutilation is reported in New Mexico and southern Colorado. Retired FBI agent disproves UFO theory as cause. Parvovirus, a recently identified canine intestinal disease, is affecting dogs in Longmont.
A.60	Animals - 1979 (January - May)	16	Longmont city parks have problem with excessive dog poop. Boulder County trains attack dogs for Sheriff dept.
A.60	Animals - 1977 - 1978	42	Longmont man keeps herd of buffalo. State has ugly dog contest. Family dog in Lyons protects 2 year old girl from rattlesnake.
A.60	Animals - 1967 - 1976	0	At large Shetland pony is chased down Lashley Street in Longmont. Sow number 45 has two liters in 42 days. Cat has 9 claws on one paw.
A.60	Animals - 1965 - 1969	67	Photos only.
A.60	Animals - 1970 - 1971	87	Photos only.
A.60	Animals - 1972	56	Photos only.
A.60	Animals - 1973 - 1974	46	Photos only. Two envelopes.
A.60	Animals - 1975	17	Photos only, including an undated photo of a policeman in a police car walking a donkey from a rope while sitting in vehicle.
A.60	Animals - 1976	10	Photos only.