EXHIBITIONS

Ruckus Rodeo: Pop Art & Cowboy Culture

Open through January 5, 2020

Explore Ruckus Rodeo, an immense, walk-through work of art consisting of painted two-dimensional surfaces and sculptural three-dimensional figures that depict the Fort Worth rodeo created by renowned pop artist Red Grooms. Wire, canvas, burlap, acrylic paint, and fiberglass were used to construct the work's larger-than-life caricatures of rodeo archetypes. Grooms' engaging work is characterized by a grand sense of spectacle, encompassing the ritual, pageantry, and disorderly commotion of a real rodeo event. The exhibit also celebrates the grand heritage and mythology of the American West with a kids' corral of hands-on cowboy activities including a hobbyhorse obstacle course, lassoing, old West photo station, and more.
