CITY COUNCIL MEETINGS

A City Council meeting is the process of making and amending laws, developing policy and making decisions for governing your city by citizens whom you have elected to the City Council. Unless changed by motion of the City Council, the Council meets in regular session on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 7 p.m. in the Council Chambers, 350 Kimbark Street. Council study sessions are scheduled for the first, third and fifth Tuesdays of the month. Council takes official action during a regular session. The only action Council can take at a study session is to provide direction to staff.

The Council

The citizens of Longmont elect all seven members of the Council. The Mayor and three of the Council members are elected at-large. The other three Council members are elected from each of the three City wards. The Mayor is the presiding officer and has the same voting privileges as all other members. The Mayor Pro Tem is elected by the Council at the first organizational meeting held after each General Municipal Election in November of odd-numbered years.

Speaking to the Council

You are welcome to speak on any issue, including items not on the agenda, if you sign up in advance. A sign-up sheet appears just outside the doors of the Council Chambers by 6:45 p.m., and is picked up by the City Clerk just prior to the meeting being called to order at 7:00 p.m. Every speaker needs to indicate the issue or agenda item number(s) they wish to address on the sign-up sheet. The Mayor will call the names listed for those wishing to speak on Consent Agenda and General Business items during the PUBLIC INVITED TO BE HEARD part(s) of the meeting. The Mayor will call for anyone who wants to speak on public hearing matters as Council takes up those items. Each speaker is asked to limit comments to three minutes.

The Agenda

The City Council follows a regular order of business in the conduct of its meetings. The agenda is publically posted by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday of each week and is available, along with a packet of back-up materials in the City Clerk's Office or on the City's Website located at www.longmontcolorado.gov
